

where®

SEATTLE
NOVEMBER 2007

THE COMPLETE GUIDE TO GO // WWW.WHEREMAGAZINE.COM

DINING AWARDS
2007

Chow Down

The City's Top Spots for Seafood

TEATRO ZINZANNI RETURNS

SEATTLE'S
BEST STAND-UP
COMEDY

TIGER CUBS
AT COUGAR
MOUNTAIN ZOO

→ DINING

COOK LIKE A CELEBRITY

The mastermind behind Redmond's swank Pomegranate Bistro, renowned chef Lisa Dupar is revealing her culinary secrets to the masses in a series of cooking classes. Washington state vino takes a starring role at "Artist in the Night Kitchen: A Winemaker Dinner with Dunham Cellars," when Dupar leads the creation of a four-course meal to be paired with fine Washington wines (November 9, 6:30-9 pm). As a special bonus, artwork from winemaker Eric Dunham will be on display. Or spruce up all your Thanksgiving favorites with the recipes Dupar will be teaching at "A Low Country Southern Thanksgiving" (November 13, 6:30-8:30 pm), when the menu will include andouille sausage corn pudding, sweet potato souffle, and roasted apple mincemeat pie with bourbon cream. Can't make it to class? Enjoy Lisa's gourmet creations at Pomegranate Bistro, 18005 NE 68th St, Redmond. Call 425-881-3250 or visit www.pomegranatebistro.com for more information.