

BACKCOUNTRY WINTER
SPORTS GUIDE (p. 144)

CAN'T-MISS HOLIDAY EVENTS (p. 268)

seattle

THE PREMIER SEATTLE MONTHLY

DECEMBER 2007

BEST OF 2007

PLUS:
THE YEAR'S MOST CRINGE-WORTHY EVENTS (Here's looking at you, Sanjaya!)

++ Best
Restaurant
Ballot
Inside!

194 of the Year's
Tops in Arts, Shops,
Food, Beauty, People and More >>>>>>>>

BONUS INSERT:

BEST
REAL ESTATE AGENTS
(p. 185)

SEATTLE MAG'S
TOP PICKS FOR HOLIDAY GIFTS

GET YOUR FIX:
TOP ARTISAN CHOCOLATES

WHAT YOUR TRASH SAYS
ABOUT YOU

GOING DEEP
WITH SEATTLE'S
SQUID HUNTERS

$4.99US $5.99CAN

12>

SEATTLEMAG.COM

DINING GUIDE

OUR GUIDE TO THE BEST EATS
IN SEATTLE AND ON THE EASTSIDE

EDITED BY SARA DICKERMAN

POMEGRANATE BISTRO: Northwest. Big-time caterers Lisa Dupar and Jonathan Zimmer bring their can-do attitude to their Redmond eatery. Breakfast pastries? Sure. Take-out options? Yup. Pizzalike "firebread"? No problem. Cassoulet, tamales and tuna tartare on the same menu? Of course. The family-friendly vibe and open kitchen give this rather new restaurant the feel of a longtime neighborhood fixture. Brunch Sat.–Sun.; lunch daily; dinner Tue.–Sat. 18005 NE 68th St., Suite A150, Redmond: 425.556.5972; pomegranatebistro.com. No Diners Club. SS   